Q2 2026 Fund Commentary

Commentary and opinions are provided by Mackenzie Investments.

Market commentary

The global economy steadied in the second quarter after the energy shock that dominated the start of the year. Crude oil prices stayed high through much of the quarter before retreating late as tensions in the Middle East eased and shipping through the Strait of Hormuz began to resume. The pullback in oil lowered input costs for energy-importing economies and helped cool fears of a broader inflation shock.

Major central banks stayed cautious. The U.S. Federal Reserve Board (Fed) and the Bank of Canada both held interest rates unchanged, and the Fed signaled that rate increases were possible later in the year. The European Central Bank raised its policy interest rates at its June meeting in response to rising inflationary pressures.

Global equity markets rose in the second quarter. Developed markets gained about 13%, led by a strong rally in the U.S. Japanese equities delivered a strong return, supported by firm economic data and continuing corporate governance reforms, though a weaker yen stayed in focus for policymakers. Emerging markets outperformed, rising close to 23%, led by extraordinary gains in South Korea and Taiwan on demand tied to artificial intelligence and semiconductors, while Chinese and Indian equities lagged.

Performance

Overweight exposure to Taiwan contributed to performance. An underweight exposure to the energy sector also contributed to performance. Relative exposure to ASML Holding NV and SK Hynix Inc. contributed.

Stock selection in the U.S. detracted from performance. A lack of exposure to Advanced Micro Devices Inc. detracted from performance.

Portfolio activity

The sub-advisor added new information technology holdings and sold positions in the consumer discretionary and communication services sectors.
